For 2008

$4.00/loft payable to the Canadian National Flying Club as one Combine cheque. Each Combine is responsible for administering this fee within their own Combine.

All CU rules apply. Clubs must follow all official CU shipping and strike off protocols, no exceptions.

Minimum distance is 565 km for the overall result.

GPS Release Coordinate will be supplied by the Canadian National Flying Club and posted on all combine websites.

Sunrise and sunset times will be supplied by the Canadian National Flying Club and posted on all combine websites. Down time is per CU rules.

AUTO Bands and New Car Award for the 2009 Upper Canada National

Starting this year The Canadian National Flying Club will order 1000 "AUTO" bands from the CU annually. These will be distributed 200 per Combine and sell for $15 each. Starting in 2009 a new car will be awarded for the first CU-AUTO banded bird clocked. The bands will be good for the life of the bird and are fully transferable. For $15 you could get several chances at winning a new car!!

Canada's largest and most prestigious race just keeps getting better!
